

THE 2025 EADP-EARA-SRA SUMMER SCHOOL

In 2025, the European Association for Developmental Psychology (EADP), the European Association for Research on Adolescence (EARA) and the Society for Research on Adolescence (SRA) will again jointly organize a summer school focusing on research on adolescence. The summer school is a training ground for young scholars interested in adolescent development. The summer school brings together established researchers, recognized for their expertise and teaching abilities with doctoral students from around the globe, for several intensive days of research training. The training includes exposure to innovative and creative research, as well as workshops focusing on professional skills. Previous summer schools have given students enthusiasm to search for scientific guidance outside of the borders of their countries and the walls of their universities.

The 2025 EADP-EARA-SRA Summer School will be held in Anupriškės, Lithuania from August 21 to August 25 (just before the ECDP conference, submission deadline January 31, see: <https://www.ecdp2025vilnius.eu>), with arrival on August 21. The site for the school will be Tony Resort, located in a beautiful part of Lithuania - the Anupriškės Pine Forest. The summer school will be directed by Beata Krzywosz-Rynkiewicz, Susan Branje, and Lisa Kiang. Senior Scholars participating this year will include: Simona Caravita, Charissa Cheah, Takuya Yanagida, Eva Telzer, Geertjan Overbeek and Jennifer Symonds.

We invite doctoral students in any part of the world to apply. A total of 24 students (8 per association) will be selected based on their academic records, research experience, letters of recommendation, and overall evidence of scientific aptitude and competence. Students who apply should have their doctoral research planned or underway, but not completed, so that they can benefit from the critiques given during the school. Students will have to cover their own travel costs, while accommodation from August 21st to August 25th (4 nights) and meals are paid for by the summer school. Students selected by SRA (whose travel costs are expected to be substantially higher) will be eligible for an SRA travel fellowship.

HOW DO YOU APPLY?

Prepare your application in English, and combine everything into one Adobe Acrobat (.pdf) file, (labeled `firstname_surname_application.docx`), including:

1. Your curriculum vitae
2. A short description of your dissertation topic and progress so far (1-2 pages double spaced),
3. A recommendation letter from your supervisor.
4. You need to be a member of EARA, EADP, or SRA upon acceptance for the school. Indicate your (anticipated) membership(s) in your application letter.

Send the application, by email, to the 2025 EADP-EARA-SRA summer school committee through EARAdolescence@gmail.com.

Applications must be received by March 31, 2025. All applications received by that date will be evaluated by members of the EADP-EARA-SRA summer school committee, with notifications emailed within around 2 months, in any case before May 31, 2025.
